Axle Payments & AscendTMS Partner To Get Freight Brokers Digital – And Funded.

Axle adds 146 brand new customers in soft-launch phase alone with free TMS software and deeply integrated funding tools to help brokers run a totally digital operation.

Tampa, Florida – November 18, 2021 – InMotion Global Inc. announced today that AscendTMS, the world's number one rated transportation management software (TMS), has added digital funding and payment tools, specific to freight brokers, from Axle Payments. As part of the agreement, Axle's current and future customers all receive a full Premium subscription to AscendTMS at no cost at all, for a full year.

"AscendTMS is the most widely used TMS software in North America because we add the features and the integrated partners that our users ask us for," said Tim Higham, president of AscendTMS. "AscendTMS software runs the entire business operations of any carrier, freight broker or shipper, and so Axle's customers can now directly access Axle's full suite of funding and payment services from within the AscendTMS software itself. Our goal is to provide a real digital advantage to AscendTMS users with this Axle integration, which makes running any brokerage business easier and much more profitable. This joint offering between Axle and AscendTMS provides a digital solution for companies that wish to lower costs, increase profits and find better freight - and to do it all electronically at no cost."

Shawn Vo, Axle's CEO and founder, said; "Axle Payments was built to fully digitize a freight brokers entire funding and payment process, with a 90% plus reduction in labor hours or staff spent in that function. This partnership with AscendTMS gives any broker the number one rated digital TMS software for free, and the best fully digital funding and payment process from Axle Payments.”

Higham concluded, “To highlight the sheer power of this digital freight technology, Axle Payments added 146 brand new freight broker customers during our 90-day soft launch phase alone. The 41,036 companies that use AscendTMS today tell us these are the types of proven solutions they crave because all of them successfully drive down their internal costs and increase their profits. I’d call that a resounding success, and a sign of even greater successes to come with Axle Payments and with other forward thinking partners we’ll be announcing soon.”
